

Call for Papers: 2021 Annual Meeting of the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the AMS
Conference Dates: Friday and Saturday, April 9–10, 2021

CFP Deadline: February 1, 2021 at 11:59 pm MST

The Rocky Mountain Chapter of the AMS is pleased to announce a call for papers for the Annual Meeting of the chapter on April 9–10, 2021. Because of the ongoing COVID-19 epidemic, the conference will be held virtually, hosted by the University of Northern Colorado, in Greeley, Colorado. The conference is part of the Rocky Mountain Music Scholars Conference, held jointly with the Southwest Chapter of the Society for Ethnomusicology and the Rocky Mountain Society for Music Theory.

The Program Committee invites proposals from scholars and students for individual papers (20 minutes and 10-minute discussion), sessions of 3–4 papers on a single topic, or roundtable discussions on musicological topics. For individual papers, please submit a paper title and abstract of 250 words or less attached to an email that provides the author's name and institutional affiliation (if applicable). The name(s) or affiliation(s) of anyone involved in the presentation should not appear in the title or abstract. Conference papers will be chosen by the selection committee through a blind review process.

According to chapter bylaws any paper submitted by an undergraduate or a master's student must be accompanied by a faculty letter of endorsement (not submitted to the review committee with the abstract). A committee will select a student for the best student paper prize, to be awarded at the end of the conference.

Please email proposals to chapter president, Deborah Kauffman
