

Call for Papers: 2021 Virtual Annual Meeting of the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the Society for Ethnomusicology-Southwest Chapter (SEMSW)

UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN COLORADO

Conference Dates: Friday and Saturday, April 9 and 10
Hosted by: University of Northern Colorado, Greeley, CO

Deadline: 11:59 PM (MST), February 1, 2021

The Rocky Mountain Chapter of the SEMSW is pleased to announce a call for papers for the Virtual Annual Meeting of the chapter on April 9–10, 2021, hosted by the University of Northern Colorado, in Greeley, Colorado. The conference will take place as part of the Rocky Mountain Music Scholars Conference, held jointly with the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the American Musicological Society, Southwest Chapter of the Society for Ethnomusicology, and the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the Society for Music Theory.

The Southwest Chapter includes Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada, Oklahoma, Texas, and Utah. The Program Committee invites proposals from Ethnomusicologists, Anthropologists, music scholars from all disciplines, and music students for individual papers (20 minutes and 10-minute discussion), panels of 3–4 papers on a single topic, or roundtable discussions on ethnomusicological topics.

For individual papers, please submit a paper title and abstract of 250 words or less with 3–4 keywords attached to an email that provides the author's name and institutional affiliation (if applicable). Panel and round table proposals should include an abstract for each presenter, as well as one for the session as a whole.

The name(s) or affiliation(s) of anyone involved in the presentation should not appear in the title or abstract. Conference papers will be chosen by the selection committee through a blind review process. Undergraduate student submissions must be accompanied by a faculty letter of endorsement (not submitted to the review committee with the abstract). A committee will select a student for the best student paper prize, to be awarded at the end of the conference.

Please email proposals to chapter president, Dr. Jittapim (Nan) Yamprai

Email: jittapim.yamprai@unco.edu and chapter vice president, Dr. Andrea Shaheen Espinosa

Email: alshaheen@utep.edu

The conference will take place virtually on zoom through the University of Northern Colorado. Details about the presentation will be announced later after papers have been accepted.

About the University and the City of Greeley:

University of Northern Colorado (UNC) is located at the heart of Greeley, tucked between the Rocky Mountains and Colorado's stunning high plains. It was founded in 1889 as Colorado's teachers college. UNC is a comprehensive baccalaureate and public doctoral research university that fuses its history for innovative teaching with transformative, hands-on education through programs across five colleges: Performing and Visual Arts, Education and Behavior Sciences, Humanities and Social Sciences, Monfort College of Business, and Natural and Health Sciences. UNC is committed to the success of its 13,000 students, with more than 200 undergraduate programs, 120 graduate programs, extended campus, and online programs.

UNC is recognized as a leader in community and civic engagement opportunities. You'll find students, faculty, and staff volunteering and working within the community through internships, research projects, recreation and events.

See more on the University of Northern Colorado website: <https://www.unco.edu/>

See more on the City of Greeley website: <https://www.visitgreeley.org/>

Follow Conference Website at <https://arts.unco.edu/music-scholars-conference/>