

MUS 100
UNC School of Music
0 Credits

Each semester, students will attend Common Hour Convocations plus a minimum of 5 concerts or productions in which you do not perform.

The following will count towards the five concerts or productions per semester:

- Professional concerts on or off-campus in any area
- Faculty recitals in any area
- On-campus guest artists in any performance area
- Up to two UNC Curricular Ensemble concerts OR Student Recitals outside your performance area. For example, if you are jazz guitar, these recitals cannot be jazz.

Proof of attendance for concerts or productions: Concert programs must have your name legibly printed and your signature on the program cover. Signed programs must be scanned into the Canvas grading shell within 7 days of attending the event. Please communicate with the instructor of record if you have any questions.

Grading for MUS 100

This course is graded as pass or fail. Any unexcused absences from Common Hour events or attending less than 5 approved concerts or productions will result in failure of the course.

Concerts and Productions portion:

Signed programs must be scanned into the Canvas grading shell within 7 days of attending the event. These programs will be assessed as pass or fail. If a program qualifies as fail, the student may be given an opportunity to replace with a qualifying program.

Common Hour portion:

Common Hour attendance will be tracked by digital check-in and check-out. All Common Hour sessions are required. Absences must be approved by the instructor of record in advance.

Attendance Tracking – Common Hour Events

App info: YouHere.Org

This semester's class code for Common Hour attendance is f19commonhour.

Enroll in the class on the app prior to arriving at the concert hall. You only need to enroll in the course once for the semester.

You must Check-in on the APP at the beginning and end of the presentation to receive credit for the event. You'll need to enable GPS for the APP in your phone for it to find your location. Go into your phone settings to ensure GPS is enabled.

If you don't own a smartphone or tablet, we will have a physical sign-in sheet. You'll need to sign this at the beginning and end of the presentation.

Academic Honesty

If you are found checking into the event and leaving out a discreet entrance/exit without attending, you will fail MUS 100, and be reported for breaking the code of conduct at the institution.
