Students should register for all MUS 797 credits before registering for MUS 799 credits.

Grand Total of Credits: (70) _____

Add the number of credits in the "Total" lines for each subdivision above, EXCEPT:

- A course may count in both the Research Core and an Emphasis, but the number of credits for that course cannot be counted twice in the grand total of credits. For example, MUS 603 Analytic Techniques may count as 3 credits of music theory in the research core and as 3 credits in a Secondary Emphasis, but can only count as 3 credits (not 6) when adding up the grand total.
- If a course is designated as repeatable for credit (such as private lessons or ensembles), the number of credits taken will be the number of credits added into the grand total.
